PM Press is an independent radical publisher of books and media founded in 2007 by a group of people with decades of publishing experience. Since then, we've sold millions of copies of our books, most often one at a time, face to face. We're old enough to know what we're doing and young enough to know what's at stake.

We are always looking for people who love books, want to learn more about independent and radical publishing, and wish to help us destroy capitalism and the state. But we must be clear about what we can offer:

- We do not have a structured internship or volunteer program
- These positions are unpaid and must take place virtually and remotely
- We cannot provide housing
- We are not currently hiring any freelancers

Despite these limitations, we can work hand in hand with self-motivated, hardworking individuals who wish to dedicate their time and develop their skills, knowledge, and experience in independent and radical publishing. There are opportunities to be a part of radical social change, bring important voices to a wider audience, learn about the book business from the inside out, and work with authors and activists.

Remote opportunities include:

- Editorial – Reading manuscripts, offering editorial advice
- Copyediting/Proofing – Checking manuscripts, blog posts, and marketing materials for errors
- Publicity and Marketing – Developing marketing plans for books, research and data collection
- Social Media – Posting across our platforms, increasing followers and engagement
- Exhibiting – Setting up and selling books at conferences, book fairs, festivals, and more
- Tech and Data Management – Strengthening our tech and data management systems

In-person opportunities include:

- Warehouse, Shipping, and Stock Management – Must find your own housing in Binghamton, NY.

Requirements to become a volunteer or intern at PM Press include:

- The ability to work virtually and autonomously on projects in a self-directed manner with professional guidance, mentorship, and assistance from PM staff
- Good communication skills and commitment to an agreed-upon timeline
- Dedication to our publishing project and mission

If you are interested and want more information, please email us a résumé or CV and brief introductory letter about why you want to intern or volunteer and what kinds of projects you want to be involved in to info@pmpress.org. Join us, not just in keeping the avenues to radical ideas and solutions alive but also in expanding them.
